PLAINFIELD
A trainload of some of the best athletes in the country, swimming, outdoors of all sorts, open to men, women and children, races of all kinds, pole vaulting, diving, beauty contest, open air carnival, and indoor carnival, open to anybody in New England states and Canada, such is the effect of a most enthusiastic meeting held by the Plainfield Community Association, preparatory to making Labor day one of the biggest days Plainfield has ever had.

James A. Royle, George Hutchinson, Edward King, the members of the committee, have in the past years held the events open only to local people. This year, however, in order to make it bigger and better it was decided to have the events open to anybody in the United States and Canada. Invitations have been sent to Norwich, New London, Westerly, Taunton, Baiton, Jewett City, Moosup, Danielson, Putnam, Worcester, Providence, New Bedford, Fall River, Salem, Lynn, Boston and more will be sent out at a later date. The association has already had word from the following who have guaranteed their appearance here: a team from Brown University, one from Montreal, Canada, and several from Boston, "Sullivan Bros." singing orchestra of Milford, Mass., will have charge of the dance music.

Dan Brown, a local jockey, has entered one of his prize-winning colts, Captain the Second, at a Rhode Island race track.
